by Frank A. Hubbell, United States

NOT AS HE EXPRESSED THEM

Teamster's Words Would Have Required Adjustment Before Their Use in the Pulpit.

A man was brought before a police court charged with abusing his team and using loud and profane language on the street. One of the witnesses was a pious old dandy, who was submitted to a short cross-examination.
"Did the defendant use improper language while he was beating his horses?" asked the lawyer.
"Well, he talk mighty loud, sub."
"Did he indulge in profanity?" The witness seemed puzzled. The lawyer put the question in another form:

"What I mean, Uncle Aus, is—did he use words that would be proper for your minister to use in a sermon?"
"Oh, yes, sub," the old man replied with a grin that revealed the full width of his immense mouth; "but dey'd have to be 'ranged diff runt."
—Everybody's Magazine.

One on Rufus Choate.

Judge Parry, in a recent article on "Rufus Choate, Advocate," says on occasion Choate would meet with his Sam Weller. Defending a prisoner for theft of money from a ship, a witness was called who had turned state's evidence and whose testimony went to prove that Choate's client had instigated the theft.
"Well," asked Choate, "what did he say? Tell us how and what he spoke to you?"
"Why," said the witness, "he told us there was a man in Boston named Choate and he'd get us off if they caught us with the money in our boots."

Are They Still Friends?

The young women present were discussing their ages. And one of the girls said:
"I don't know what it is about my appearance, but everybody always guesses me a lot younger than I really am."
And another of the girls answered, oh, so sweetly:
"Oh, that's after they have heard you talk, isn't it, dear?"

The Haughty Help.

"Do you miss the summer boarders?"

"Kind o'," replied Farmer Cornsuel. "A summer boarder is right com-fortin' to have around from time to time. He ain't nigh so bossy an' fault findin' as the hired men."

Logical.

"Do you know, I think Dick acts rather bashful when he's with you?"
"Maybe so, but you should see him when we are where no one can see us."

Most of the so-called golden opportunities that come our way are only plated.

Canada's mineral production in 1914 was valued at $128,475,499.

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. Richmond, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N.Y.

PERU, N.Y.—"Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it."—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N.Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief.
I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, DUNHAM, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS
50¢ at all Stores
Foster-Williams Co., Prop., Buffalo, N.Y.

Just as He Had Said.

"You remember selling me some hair-restorer when I called the other day to get shaved, you hoary-headed old thief!" roared the indignant customer. "You sold it under false pretenses, sir. You said it would restore my head to its original condition."
"Well, didn't it work?" asked the barber.

"Work? No. It's taken off what little hair I used to have, and I am as bald as the pavement now."

"That's quite right, sir. No false pretense about that. I said it would restore your head to its original condition, and you know, sir, most of us are born bald."

Sure Thing.

"Carrie is a long-headed girl."
"How so?"
"Instead of trusting to luck at the seaside she got engaged before coming down, and makes her fiancé come down to see her once a week."

The Idea.

"What do you think is the most lucrative way of paying?"
"With gold bricks."
